Important Notice for Provisional Eligibility of Candidates for the post of Assistant Professor (Veterinary Science, Fisheries Science & Dairy Science) under Advertisement No. 01 of 2025

All candidates who have applied under Advertisement No. 01/2025 are hereby informed to log in to the Kamdhenu University Recruitment Portal (<https://ku.registeronline.in>) using their Login ID and Password/Key and check their provisional eligibility status, i.e. Eligible or Not-Eligible, as displayed on the portal.

Candidates are advised to carefully review their application status and the remarks, if any, displayed against their application on the Recruitment Portal, and to comply strictly as per the instructions provided therein. The University shall not entertain any individual communication in this regard.

Important Note for the Not Eligible Candidates:

1. Candidates declared Not-Eligible may submit compliance only for the specific reasons cited for non-eligibility, strictly through the Kamdhenu University Recruitment Portal (<https://ku.registeronline.in>) using their Login ID and Password/Key on or before 10/02/2026 up to 11:00 AM.
2. Compliance submitted through any other mode, including email, post, telephone, personal visit, or any other means, shall not be accepted.
3. Submission of any new or additional documents/certificates is not permitted at this stage. However, where the University has specifically asked the candidate to upload documents such as the Provisional Degree Certificate (PDC), Salary Slip, Degree Certificate, or any other supporting document for compliance purposes, only those documents specifically requested may be uploaded. No other document shall be accepted.
4. Further, if re-upload of a document has been allowed due to poor scan quality, illegibility, or text being hidden under the header, the candidate may re-upload the same document as submitted earlier, without any change, modification, or replacement.
5. The decision to accept or reject the compliance submitted by the candidate shall rest solely with Kamdhenu University, and the University's decision shall be final and binding.
6. Any compliance received after 10/02/2026, 11:00 AM, shall not be considered under any circumstances by any mode.

Important Note for the Candidates:

1. Eligible candidates are required to verify and accept the score obtained in their biodata. Candidate may submit their compliance, if any, through Kamdhenu University Recruitment Portal (<https://ku.registeronline.in>) using their Login ID and Password/Key on or before 10/02/2026 up to 11:00 AM.
